You have a friend who is also a vendor representative for a company you deal with at work. The friend won a night at a hotel in Santa Fe in a raffle but is unable to make it to town. He offers to let you use the free night. Can you accept?

- Yes
- No

Correct. P722, Business Gifts and Gratuities, prohibits the acceptance of gifts from any present or potential Laboratory suppliers of more than nominal value ($20 per event) whether for business or pleasure. Remember, a long-standing personal relationship does not exempt you from the rules against gifts and gratuities.
